

VALUTA MARKETS

Trading Competition Rules

- Competition length: 1 month (20th February 2023-20th March 2023)
- The competition is open for Retail clients of IBs using the specific registration link who are residents of the Maldives
- Copy trading accounts (both proving and following ones) are restricted from the participation
- Winner to be determined at the end of the trading competition
- For every new round, the previous round(s) ROI results are “zero-ed” and the competition starts all over again
- In order to enrol on any competition round the client should deposit a minimum of 100 USD/GBP/EUR (depending on the account base currency) and trade 1 standard lot
- The client can win once. Only clients that have never obtained any prizes in previous competitions (including Client as well as any Partner promotions) are eligible for participating in the competition
- Only clients that have full KYC are eligible to participate in the competition
- Only 1 trading account per client can enter the competition
- One promotion per account only. The Client can opt for the competition with his trading account only if the account has not yet obtained any bonus
- Clients will be allowed to add more funds to the given account throughout the competition
- Clients will be allowed to withdraw and transfer funds to/from the account that is chosen for the competition. However, the transfer between accounts should not be qualified as a Competition-related deposit, and no deposit bonus will be applicable in case
- Once the user selects which account takes part in the competition, all positions that are opened from the date/time of starting the competition will be considered as taking part in the competition, and their performance will be tracked and calculated to give the score and ranking
- The client can opt out of the competition, which will freeze his participation on the account that he was using. He will no longer be able to rejoin the competition on the same account. In case he wants to re-join a competition, he should be able to do so only using a different account by depositing a minimum of 100USD/EUR/GBP(depending on the account’s currency) and trade 1 standard lot
- Clients will be informed that all positions which were opened and closed during the time of competition affect their ranking